THE FRISCO KID

This 1979 film comedy is about a newly qualified Rabbi - Avram Belinsky, who is sent from Poland by his Yeshiva to become the rabbi of a shul in San Francisco and build the community. This is 1850 America at the time of the gold rush. Completely unsuited for the lifestyle, Avram is victimised by everyone he comes in contact with. Eventually he teams up with an unlikely character, who happens to be a bank robber, and they travel across the country together, becoming involved in a series of comical situations, including almost getting killed. The film stars Harrison Ford as Avram, and Gene Wilder, early in their careers.

Run time is 113 minutes.
