

KKW5 - AUTUMN 2018

Kenton, Kingsbury & Wembley United Synagogues
with Wembley S&P Synagogue
and the David Ishag Synagogue

At Kenton Synagogue (HA3 ORD)

MONDAY PROGRAMME at 8pm

'The Identity of G-d

October 15th in Tenach

October 22nd in Rabbinic Texts

November 5th in Liturgy

November 12th Gender

Dr Lindsay Simmonds works at LSE in the Dept. of Gender Studies.

She has taught at LSJS for over 20 years and convenes courses there. She has lectured for Kings' College London, for the United Synagogue and at Jewish communities throughout the UK. She speaks at national and international conferences on Judaism and Gender, writes for the Jewish Chronicle and is involved in several UK projects promoting orthodox Jewish women's ritual participation and leadership. Lindsay is also involved in several inter-faith projects and is a member of the Cambridge Co-Exist Leadership Programme.

In 2016-7 she held the post of Scholar-in-Residence at Hampstead United Synagogue.

£4 entry to include refreshments.